
Barry Grabowski* - Partner

- BUSINESS LAWYER
- WILLS AND ESTATE LAWYER

Barry Grabowski, is a lawyer practicing in Metro Vancouver with offices in Richmond and White Rock. He has over 30 years of experience in advising, individuals, families and business clients.

Barry has handled legal matters in estate planning, will preparation, administration, business and business property transactions, succession issues, real estate purchases and sales and more. He is skilled in developing effective, individualized plans and strategies that help his clients achieve their personal and business objectives.

Barry is especially skilled at providing business advice and recommending business structures, such as in the buying or selling of businesses, negotiating of leases, drafting agreements, etc. He has guided many clients through complex estate and succession-planning situations, and always seeks to simplify what can be a challenging and emotional time.

Barry strives at all times to be a trusted, competent adviser, in stable times as well as times of change. Many of his clients have trusted Barry's planning through several generations of business ownership.
